YOUNG WRITERS

We had a lovely presentation in our Collective Worship this week when the Rotary Club of Truro Boscawen came to present 11 pupils with a certificate each for competing in the Rotary Young Writer competition. This is a National competition and there were 103 junior entries from 9 different schools and our pupil Phoebe B came 2nd place overall in Cornwall. We are so proud of all our pupils submitting their entries, with the theme of "Rebuilding" which required considerable imagination and thought. Some children chose to talk about rebuilding nests, others about rebuilding their house, and Phoebe's was about rebuilding friendships. One of the judges said that her piece included "Lovely ideas and it was nicely developed. She has used a variety of sentence types and used good adverbial phrases."

Congratulations to all our pupils for taking part, and for their amazing attitude towards their learning.

Have a lovely weekend.
