

A cartoon illustration of a brown Easter bunny sitting in a green field. The bunny's ears are large and upright. In the background, there are rolling green hills, a bright yellow sun with rays, and white clouds. Several colorful Easter eggs are scattered around: a green one with white polka dots and a red ribbon, a pink one, a purple one, and several others with various patterns like zig-zags and dots. Small yellow butterflies are also visible in the field.
