

We would like to celebrate World Book Day by creating a 'Book in a jar'. Children are invited to think about how a favourite book, could be represented in a simple jar.

There are some examples below for you to have a look at. Any clear jar can be used, a coffee jar, jam jar or other. You can put carefully chosen items to represent your book into your jar, selected quotes from your book, perhaps even clues about its characters or setting, or even decorate the outside of the jar to tell a main event from the story.

Please make sure that any 'Book in a jars' are clearly labelled with the book that is being represented, your child's full name and year group.

We would love to display the jars in school and they will be available for viewing by the whole school as part of our World Book Day celebrations!
